

Dr. Marie A. Mann

Dr. Marie A. Mann is a worshipper, mentor, and vessel of grace. She is the First Lady of First Baptist Church of Mason City, where she has served faithfully providing leadership, love and loyal support. She has taken the stand to make FBCMC the best church in the city of Birmingham, Alabama. Dr. Mann has a passion to serve everyone but has a special passion for the youth and seniors of FBCMC. She pushes to teach and tell with a passion the necessities for both to live at their fullest God-given potential and to “be not afraid, you do have a voice”.

Dr. Mann has organized and led several conferences and programs to highlight the youth and seniors in the community and the church. In May 2015 Dr. Mann presented a youth conference in Forest, Ms. entitled “Let Your Faith Be Bigger Than Your Fear” in which all ages participated in a discussion (roundtable) on peer pressure, money, leadership, abstinence, education, positive mindsets and role models. Young adults were able to come and have “their” issues addressed by a chosen panel which consisted of educators, government officials, pastors, leading ladies and youth advisors. Dr. Mann is the founder and CEO of S.W.A.P.W.I.N. (Sisters Walking with A Purpose Walking In Newness) Women’s Conference which she launched in May 2016 @ First Baptist Church of Mason City in Birmingham, Alabama which continues to be held yearly in May in Hueytown, Al. Additionally, Dr. Mann initiated and orchestrated a vision for a weekly prayer line (every Tuesday night 7:00pm) in February 2016.

She is a proud product of Morton, Ms. Morton High School in the Scott County, Ms. school system. In May 2019, Dr. Mann received her Doctorate Degree from New Foundation Theological Seminary in Terry Ms. in Christian Counseling. Lady Mann is a woman of God, an innovative program planner, an avid church leader, and a wonderful wife and mother. Her secular experience includes, office management, medical management, customer service, medical office responsibilities and training updates and implementation processes. She manages the current budget for FBCMC and is Ministry Leader of the Finance Ministry, a member of the Re-Entry Team, Leader of the Women’s Ministry and Administrative Assistant for the Pastor.
